Hegewisch: "Now, Bat, because you are successful don't go out and make a fool of yourself." These words would keep coming to me, and I went back to the training quarters to think it over.

All this time I had been reading the papers and I had read where many of the former champions had thrown themselves away while celebrating their victories. I was not yet a champion, but I was awful closs to it. I had fought my way all over the country and I felt as if the magic title was almost in reach.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debnity, tack of vigor, weakened vitality, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the foilies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regard his full vitality and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, in a plain, ordinary scaled envelope, to any man who will write for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men, and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of impaired vitality and vigor-failing ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow-men to send them a copy in confidence, so that any man, anywhere, who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quicket-acting restorative, un-brilding, spot-touching remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4100 Luck Bids. Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt, in a niain, ordinary sealed envelope, free of charge.
